

Student Council Nomination Form

The Student Council at CHCS acts as a representative group of students who meet monthly with the principal/assistant principal and the student council advisor, Mrs. Damouras, to plan spirit days, community service initiatives, organize fundraising, and discuss topics pertinent to the students in the school. At the beginning of each year, one representative from each class will be elected by their peers to serve on the Student Council. The responsibilities of the Student Council members are:

- Attend and participate in monthly Student Council meetings
- Report back to his/her class any topics addressed at the Student Council Meetings
- Create a suggestion box for the class
- Bring pertinent topics from the class to the Student Council meetings for discussion

Student Council meetings will be held monthly after school from 3:00-4:00. Students will need to be picked up promptly at 4:00 pm. The meeting dates are listed below. If a student would like to enter the election, this signed nomination/permission form must be returned to school by Monday, September 10. Elections will take place the week of 9/10 and if elected, the student will get a confirmation to take home.
